

รายงานการศึกษาฉบับสมบูรณ์โครงการศึกษาวิจัยค่าใช้จ่ายที่จำเป็นของแรงงานไร้ฝีมือใน

ภาคอุตสาหกรรม

The purposes of the study are to survey needed expenditure of non-skilled workers of industrial sector for deploying the data to set up minimum wages per province and to stipulate a measure for increasing minimum wages. Research methodology is divided to be 2 steps, the first step is using sampling technique and questionnaire with the non-skilled workers in manufacturing sector, constructing sector, trade in services and transport and logistics sector, the second one is modifying an econometric model basing on Tulip model to use as a tool for increasing the minimum wages.

ชำนาญ หอสมุด