

รายงานการวิจัยเรื่องการสำรวจความคิดเห็นของนายจ้างที่มีต่อบัณฑิต

มหาวิทยาลัยธรรมศาสตร์

The research has an objective to survey opinion of employers comparing the actual with the expected qualifications of Thammasat graduates of 1986 and 1987 academic year. The result indicates significant difference of 26 qualifications of Thammasat graduates at 0.05. Actual qualifications by which the employers classified respectively to be the most satisfaction are politeness, interpersonal skill, ability to learn, diligence and self-adjustment, on the other hand, basic computer skill, report writing skill, English communication skill, planning skill and problem solving skill are ranked to be the lowest. Considering all of the graduates classified by faculty, it was found that the graduates of Sirindhorn International Institute of Technology acquiring the most expected qualifications whereas the graduates of Faculty of Law gaining the least.

ชำนาญ หอสมุด